COUNT ONE

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

1. Between on or about June 1, 2012, and on or about August 29, 2013, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, defendant conspired and agreed, together with others known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit an offense against the United States, that is, to knowingly, in and affecting interstate and foreign commerce, recruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, obtain, and maintain a person, and to benefit financially and to receive things of value from such a venture, knowing, and in reckless disregard of the fact, that the person had not attained the age of 18 years and would be cause to engage in a commercial sex act, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1591(a)

ADRIAN PALMER

MANNER AND MEANS

2. At all times material to the indictment, defendant ADRIAN PALMER was a security guard at the Days Inn, 4200 Roosevelt Boulevard, Philadelphia, PA (the “Days Inn”).

3. It was part of the conspiracy that defendant ADRIAN PALMER provided protection and assistance to sex traffickers operating at the Days Inn in exchange for a daily fee.

4. Craig Johnson, indicted elsewhere, was the operator of a sex trafficking venture in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. As part of this venture, Craig Johnson recruited young females to work as prostitutes in his business at the Days Inn. Two of the females whom he recruited and who worked for him at the Days Inn, Minor 1 and Minor 2, whose names are known to the grand jury, were under the age of 18 years.

5. Confidential Witness #1 (“CW1”) was posing as a person seeking to engage in the sex trafficking of (fictitious) minors at the Days Inn.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy, defendant ADRIAN PALMER, and others known and unknown to the grand jury, committed the following overt acts, among others, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

1. Between on or about June 1, 2012, through on or about June 14, 2012, Craig Johnson provided daily payments of between $60 and $100 to defendant ADRIAN PALMER.

2. In exchange for these payments, defendant ADRIAN PALMER provided Craig Johnson with advice about Johnson’s sex trafficking organization, including Johnson’s Backpage.com advertisements, provided Johnson with clients for Johnson’s sex trafficking business, and provided protection for Craig Johnson so that law enforcement authorities would not be alerted to Craig Johnson’s sex trafficking operation.

3. On or about August 22, 2013, defendant ADRIAN PALMER agreed with confidential witness #1 (“CW1”) to make arrangements for CW1 to reside at and discretely engage in the sex trafficking of (fictitious) minors ages 16 and 17 at the Days Inn and to ensure that CW1 would not be apprehended by law enforcement.

4. On or about August 29, 2013, defendant ADRIAN PALMER accepted $100 from CW1 in exchange for providing him with protection from law enforcement in order for CW1 to engage in the sex trafficking of a (fictitious) 16-year-old minor.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.
